Friends may call at the Sharp Funeral Home in Carroll, after 4 p.m. on Thursday where there will be a Rosary prayed at 5 p.m., led by Louis' nephew, Deacon Gary Schon. A second Rosary will be held at 7 p.m., and will be led by Louis' son, Fr. Randy Schon; it will be followed by a time of sharing.

The casket will be moved to St. Mary's Church Parish Hall in Willey on Friday morning, where visitation will resume from 9 to 10 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left at the funeral home or at the church to be directed to the Glidden First Responders.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Sharp Funeral Home in Carroll, and online condolences may be left for Louis' family at www.sharpfuneral.com.

Born on November 24, 1927 at the family farm near Willey, Iowa, Louis was the son of William Sr. and Anna (Mersmen) Schon. He attended school at St. Mary's School in Willey. On October 25, 1958 Louis was united in marriage to Dorothy Sporrer at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Templeton. The couple farmed south of Glidden where he and his sons raised feeder pigs since 1973. Lou also lived on this farm until his final week.

Lou was an avid baseball, and 16 inch slow pitch softball player and fan. He enjoyed watching his 5 children and 3 grandchildren play sports, meeting and visiting with new friends, and cheering on his Kansas City Royals since the 1970's. Most of all Louis enjoyed his family and farming. He was a member of St. Mary's Parish in Willey.

Louis is survived by his wife of over 57 years Dorothy Schon of Glidden; his five children: Fr. Randy Schon of Boone, Dan Schon of Glidden, Rhonda (Dan) Schwarzkopf of Grimes, David (Dana) Schon, and their children, Jay, Greg, and Rachel all of Ankeny, and Glenn Schon of Carroll. Also surviving are his brothers: William (Dorothy) Schon of Carroll, and Leo Schon of Carroll; his sisters-in-law: Barbara Schon, Harriet Schon, Millie Sporrer, and Evelyn Sporrer, as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Louis was preceded in death by his parents, his siblings: Andrew (Katharine) Schon, Joseph (Dorothy) Schon, Sil Schon, Norbert Schon, and Robert Schon; his sisters-in-law, and brothers-in-law: Rosie Schon, Inez (Bud) Ohlinger, Lawrence Sporrer, and Sprig Sporrer.

“ To the family, please accept my deepest sympathies on your loss.
No words express the difficulty of coping with death although I pray the promise God gives in the scriptures strengthen you through this ordeal. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” Isaiah 25:8
