“ I have so many fond memories of Aunt Luanne while growing up in Carroll. On the days my mom did her hair and she'd come up to the house, she would often bring my sister and I treasures she'd find - she even found our first bikes! I will also cherish the memories of Christmas Eves spent at her and Barry's... that time with our family all together remains in my heart to this day.

May she rest in peace with her Heavenly Father and surrounded by all her angels who went before her. ❤️

It was so much fun to learn a couple of years ago that she grew up on the farm that neighbors the one that we live on.

“ Luanne and I have been best friends since 3rd grade. I have many wonderful memories over the years. One special memory was when Luanne and I and two other friends took first place in a dance contest in Arcadia. We dressed up as the four seasons. The next year we took second place dressed as bunnies and did the bunny hop! We had so many fun times over many years. Unfortunately I'm unable to attend the funeral as I'm in Wisconsin in a nursing home. I love my dear friend and miss her terribly. Sincere condolences to her family. Love, Marilyn (Koenig) Heilman and husband Don.
