“ What a wonderful woman. She was kind, gracious and strong. She was a comfort to my mother, her niece, when we lost my brother at age 12, which was within a year or so of the time she lost Danny, Gene and Neil. I will always remember her with admiration and affection.

“ Marg had so many losses in her life, but instead of going thru life sad and angry, she always had a smile, and was so nice. You always saw Marg dressed nice, with jewelry that matched her pretty outfit, but her best accessory was definitely her smile! You also felt her faith & love for God. She was a truly beautiful lady, inside and out.

“ Marge was such a beautiful person both inside and out. We were so fortunate to have her as an Aunt and loved stopping by to see her and Uncle Ed on our way to Omaha. We used to call them to see if they would be home and many times there wasn't too much notice given but you can be sure the coffee and baked goods were waiting for us upon our arrival. You will be missed Marge but we'll still be stopping by to see Uncle Ed. All our Love, Charlie & Patty Reiling Scobba
