Born on January 23, 1935 at Carroll, Iowa, Marian was the daughter of Steve and Florence (Hermsen) Loew. She grew up on her family's dairy farm near Maple River, where she milked cows, bottle fed calves, and helped deliver newborn calves. She later completed her education from St. Francis of Assisi School in Maple River.

On August 11, 1956 Marian was united in marriage to Roland Daniel at St. James Catholic Church in Madison, Wisconsin. The couple made their home in the Carroll area. Marian worked at St. Anthony Hospital for over 25 years, working on the cleaning staff, and later completing her education to become a certified nurse's aide.

Marian also was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and homemaker. She enjoyed baking, gardening, canning, watching baseball, especially if the St. Louis Cardinals were playing, and traveling with Roland. Marian held a special place in her heart for her extraordinary furry companion Louie. Most of all Marian enjoyed being a wife, mother, and grandmother, as many of her most enjoyed moments were spent with her family. Marian was a member of St. Lawrence Parish in Carroll.

Her five children and their spouses: Gary Daniel of Des Moines, Timothy (Leslie) Daniel of Ankeny, Marcy (Tom) Burke of Kearney, MO, Linda (Tim) Rhoades of Polk City, and Cheryl (Doug) King of Coon Rapids; seven grandchildren: Randi Daniel, Mikala (Jeremy) Reynolds, Ariel (Bryce) Bertran, Abigail (Ryan) Esdohr, Casey Daniel, Kaitlyn Burke, and Daniel Burke, four great-grandchildren: Oliver Reynolds, Sawyer Reynolds, Atlas Esdohr, and Cedar Esdohr; her siblings: Larry (Mary Jane) Loew of Maple River, Lollie
