“ My strongest memory of Aunt Margie was spending a week at the Hacker home with the cousins each summer. Aunt Margie was always in the kitchen and had fresh baked caramel rolls ready when we woke up. We got to help snap the beans from the garden as we all sat on the porch together. She was always smiling, always happy, and always looked the same....like she didn't age!

A lot of good memories. Margie was my godmother and we shared the same birthday. She made me those wonderful dish cloths. My most prized possession is the beautiful quilt she made for me in 1994. Much sympathy to the family. She will be missed. My mother Sally Kruse was a very close friend for many years. Kinda Gill
