Very sorry to hear about your loss with Mark's passing. He was a good, kind, very loving and gentle man! Mae, you have my support during this time of loss. He truly lived a full and wonderful life. For all of you kids, my prayers and support are with you this day and days to come. I have good memories when our family would visit you all on the Farm. Good days indeed! Know that Mark is now in heaven cracking jokes with Raphael, (and barbecuing a huge full pig with Raphael also...remember that?) also sharing good times in Heaven with Mello, my Dad Lenny, with Rita and Mary Ann and Felicitas and of course with our Grandma Rose Knobbe. I am sure he is having some great winning conversations also with that wonderful Daniel McGillicuddy guy! May you all know that you are in my warmest thoughts and prayers. He is at Peace with God in Heaven smiling on you all!
