“ The death of this innocent couple brought me into tears. This small town we once knew to be relatively safe has been turned upside down. The family should know that even people such as myself who did not know them, are feeling your pain in the brutal way that they were taken. I think I speak for everyone in the Denison area when I say that we will be thinking of you and your family as well as sending thoughts and prayers Monday.

“ Hugs and prayers to you, Madelyn. You and Marvin were so good to my mom, Rita Henrich, and for that I will be forever grateful. Heaven gained another ornery angel ... something tells me he will be spending time with my dad, Demps, and all those other fun-loving Maple River folks who have gone before us. RIP Marvin ...

“ It's so sad that the small town lifestyle that use to feel safe, no longer holds the idealic sense of security. Too many people who choose to make bad, selfish, self-centered choices have taken that security away. The brutal, senseless way these two people left this earth will sadden the hearts of so many people for years to come. I'm sure God met you at the pearly gates and invited you in with open arms. May you RIP
