Mary moved to Gillette, Wyoming in June of 2018, where she met her future husband James Huls. Mary and James were united in marriage on January 19, 2019, in Gillette, where they resided until they moved back to Iowa.

She had a lifelong love of movies- especially Western- and if she started talking about John Wayne, you knew you were in for a long, enjoyable conversation. In her younger years, she loved to travel and attend concerts. She also enjoyed hunting mushrooms and had special love for flowers. She loved listening to the Native American flute and to watch Pow-Wows on TV. In recent years, she loved connecting with others on social media and treasured every moment spent with her husband , James.

Mary was cared for with extraordinary love and devotion by her husband, James, who stood faithfully by her side and provided around-the-clock care with compassion, strength and unwavering dedication. His selflessness and deep love were a true testament to their bond and brought Mary comfort and dignity in her final days. The family would also like to extend their heartfelt gratitude to the hospice team, whose kindness, support and exceptional care provided comfort not only to Mary, but to all who loved her during this difficult time.

Mary is survived by her husband James Huls; her son Aaron Maben; her sister Cathy Ann Henry Crees and husband Kevin of Bayard, Iowa; her brothers Robert Allen Henry of Savage, Minnesota; her uncle Harry Edwar Kitchen of Washington, Iowa; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ I am an ex daughter in law of Mary. Mary and I would talk on the phone daily, if not a few times a day. Her and James taught me so much about different things. She will forever hold a special place in my heart, even though I am no longer family.
