met her husband Gary Weitzl.

On March 1, 1975, Mary was united in marriage with her husband, Gary Weitzl, at the Sacred Heart Church in Templeton, Iowa. They were blessed with 2 children, Sara and Jesse, raised in their family home in Templeton.

Mary's greatest joy in this world was her family and grandkids.

Throughout her life Mary enjoyed gardening, crocheting, camping with family and friends, playing cards, horseback riding and traveling. The last few years of her time with her family Mary's greatest joys were spent hosting the grandkids with camping in her backyard, pool parties on the patio, golf cart driving lesson, golf cart rides around town and boating on the pontoon. She also enjoyed cutthroat weekends of card playing with her sisters.
