Merle, the son of Henry and Clementine (Wittrock) Potthoff was born on October 29, 1930 at Carroll, Iowa. He grew up on the family farm northeast of Halbur, and attended St. Augustine School. After his formal education Merle began farming with his father.

On October 16, 1951, Merle was united in marriage to Lila Davis, at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Carroll, the couple made their home northeast of Halbur where Merle was engaged in grain and livestock farming. Merle semi-retired from farming at age 65. Although he "retired" he still continued to help his son John farm on a part time basis.

Merle enjoyed country music, attending concerts, playing cards, watching baseball, and golfing. He took great pride in his acreage, planting, and caring for hundreds of mums that lined their lane each year. Merle also enjoyed woodworking, building many different crafts for his children and grandchildren. Most of all, Merle loved the farm life, and all his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. He was a lifelong member of St. Augustine Church in Halbur.

Left to celebrate Merle's life is his wife, Lila Potthoff of rural Carroll; 7 children: Sharon Ryan of Perry, Nancy (Patrick) Monjarez of Omaha, Michael Potthoff of Panora, Joan (Randy) Drees of Carroll, John (Gail) Potthoff of Halbur, Brenda (Jim) Falke of Omaha, and Mark (Jane) Potthoff of Polk City; 17 grandchildren 23 great-grandchildren; siblings: Arlene Rupiper of Carroll, Lois Hinnens of Carroll, and Joyce (Dick) Wright of Carroll; sister-in-law: Betty Potthoff of Manning, and brother-in-law: Danny Rowedder of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

“ I don't think I ever remember seeing Mert without a smile. Just a great guy. We played a lot of softball in their yard, and I first learned how to ride a bike going down that big grassy hill (soft landing). Lila cut my hair and was another great excuse to visit. She told me a funny story Sunday about me biting her during one of my haircuts when I was 2 or 3 years old, but I bet she got me confused with Brian! In typical Lila fashion, she blamed herself for surprising me when she grabbed me from behind while I was playing on the floor. I obviously don't remember, but it sounds like something I would've done. Our deepest sympathies.
