Born on July 19, 1942 at Carroll, Iowa, Merlin was the son of William and Alma (Irlmeier) Haverman. He grew up near Roselle and attended Holy Angels School. Following his schooling, Merlin held several jobs in the Carroll area. Merlin was engaged in farming with grain and livestock on the family farm south of Roselle and later moved to the Carroll community.

He was an avid Chicago Cubs fan, enjoyed going for drives, and was a collector of silver coins. Merlin had a deep devotion to his faith and was a member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Carroll.

Merlin is survived by his daughters: Tricia Gohlke and her husband Greg of Dayton, OH, and Carrie Cleary and her husband Michael of Duncannon, PA; his grandchildren: Pierce, Quinn, and Olivia Gohlke; his siblings: Velma Williams of Halbur, Colleen (Tony) Meiners of Carroll, Betty (Leo) Bruch of Templeton, Robert (Sue) Haverman of Ankeny, Diane (Tom) Subbert of Peoria, IL, Gary (Jeanne) Haverman of Bayard, Don (Mona) Haverman of Cedar Falls, and Mary Jo (Tony) Duke of Ankeny; as well as many nieces, nephew, and other extended relatives.

Merlin was preceded in death by his parents; his sister-in-law, Toots Haverman; his brother-in-law, Ray Williams; and his nephew, Andy Haverman.

“ Merlin always knew us, and would call us by our names. Enjoyed visiting with him @ Nursing Home, but got a kick out of him when his baseball games came on T.V.he would quickly say, "Goodbye" Talk to you again!! :)
God Bless Him as he rests in peace. Our sympathy to the whole Haverman family.
