“ Uncle Michael taught me to play chess, introduced me to the genius of Mel Brooks and Edgar Allen Poe, and fostered a lifelong joy of star gazing. I’ll miss his letters, emails, cards which frequently required the use of a dictionary. Lastly, I will miss the simple pleasure of putting puzzles together while talking football or telling jokes. Rest in peace Uncle Michael...please say hello to Grandpa, Grandma and mom for me!

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Mike's passing. As past chair of the Carroll County Democrats, we had many a conversation about any number of issues and solutions that would help people. That's what Mike was all about. He took on the thankless job as Secretary of our county party and did it with efficiency, energy and dedication. You will be missed by all of those who knew you, Mike. Rest in peace.

What awesome photos! We were neighbors of Mervin and Amelia from 1970-77 when we lived on the corner of 15th and Highland Dr. Such good people! Anytime one of us would see Michael he always asked about the other, and was eager to have a conversation. RIP Michael, joining your parents and sister.

“ This makes me so sad. I just saw Michael on Band Day like I always do, chatting with him during the parade. Band Day won't be the same.

He always sent me a card on my Anniversary (which is his birthday). Which is just a sweet gesture, for Gutnis sake (he would get that joke).

When my family gets together we will drink some tea and play a game of dirty marbles in your honor Michael. The Klaus Brothers have legend status with this game. And you better believe I won't think twice to pull a Michael and pass my own home to make sure my brother doesn't win.

I am in shock that you are gone. I will miss you.

Band Day parade, snickerdoodles, tea, dirty marbles (Aggravation), quotes from Firesign Theater . . .

These will always remind me of Michael.

He was the best at remembering birthdays and anniversaries with cards.

So many fond memories.

I will miss him.
