Born on April 21, 1918 at Carroll, Iowa, Mildred was the daughter of George and Mary (Goetzinger) Masching. She grew up near Roselle and attended

Holy Angel's School. On October 26, 1942 she married Clarence Morman at Holy Angel's Catholic Church in Roselle. Following her husband's military service Millie and Clarence made their home in Carroll. She worked at St. Lawrence with the hot lunch program, worked several years at Sernett's Variety Store and also worked at HyVee for a brief time. Millie loved woodworking, playing cards, traveling and spending time with her entire family. The past few years Millie was living in Papillion, Nebraska where she could be closer to her family. She was a member of St. Lawrence Parish, St. Columkille Parish, and the Carroll Catholic Daughters of Americas.

Millie is survived by her children: Richard Morman and wife Bonnie of Michigan City, IN, Bonnie Welle and husband William of Spencer, Connie Zurek of Papillion, NE, and Terry Morman and wife Mary of Elkhorn, NE; 11 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; 1 great-great-grandchild; 1 brother, Paul Masching and wife Margie of Hayfield, MN; 2 sisters: Florence Bruening of Carroll and Louise Klocke of Carroll; as well as several nieces, nephews, and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Clarence; son-in-law, Deacon John Zurek; and her brother Norbert Masching.
