Morris Mathias Kuker was born on April 7, 1934, in Carroll, Iowa, to Mathias and Eleanor (Hoelsing) Kuker.

Morris grew up in Carroll and graduated from Carroll High School in 1952. He enlisted in the Army and eventually moved to Schleswig, Iowa where he continued to farm and start his family.

Morris enjoyed farming in his early years in the Carroll and Crawford County areas and later moved to Auburn, NE. He enjoyed spending time reading the Bible and listening to Christian music. Morris loved telling stories of the good ol' days to all who would listen, cracking jokes and visiting with others.

Morris is survived by his children: William (Dawn) Kuker of Vienna, VA, Melissa Moorhead of Pleasant Hill, IA, Jennifer (Nathan) Tafoya of Las Vegas, NV, and Khristopher (Jamie) Kuker of Rockwall, TX; three grandchildren Brayden Kuker, Matthias Kuker and Hannah Kuker; his brother Robert Kuker; sisters, Lavonne (Leon) Wernimont, Jolene Happe, Rilla (Lloyd) Soetmilk and Jacque Rattenborg, and sister-in-law Margaret Kuker as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mathias and Eleanor Kuker; his sister Lois Graham; and his brothers, Thomas, Evan, Ronald, Richard, Marvin, and Allan.
