“ My Deepest Sympathy. Losing someone you love in death is always difficult, but when it's a little one it's extremely difficult. Every feeling you have is so much more intense, the hurt, pain, sorrow, and then that empty feeling, really missing them so much. I am so sorry you are going through that. Family and friends are really helpful, encouraging, but when things calm down, there are times when you are all alone in need of comfort. I hope knowing how "God really cares for you" really helps. God promises: "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness." Isn't it comforting to know that when you are hurt, in pain, and alone God will hold your right hand. I sincerely hope that leaning on God knowing that He wants to help, is waiting to help, and is even listening to see when to help, brings you so much comfort and strength so you can make it through this difficult time. (1 Peter 5:7, Isaiah 41:10)
