Born on November 18, 1931 at Roselle, Iowa, Phyllis was the daughter of Henry and Rose (Hochstatter) Meishied. On June 20, 1951, she was united in marriage to Cyril J. Friedman at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Dedham. Following their marriage the couple lived in Chicago while her husband attended DeVry University. Phyllis and Cyril then moved back to the Carroll community where they built a new home on 18th Place. Phyllis was a devoted homemaker, housewife and raised their seven children. Phyllis and Cyril loved traveling to various locations in their younger years. She loved hosting family gatherings; especially the annual Friedman golf outing and grill out. Phyllis also enjoyed trips to the casino. She had a deep devotion to her faith being an active member of St. Lawrence Church and was also a member of the St. Anthony Hospital Auxiliary.

Phyllis is survived by her children: Gail (Bill) Orcutt of Pleasant Hill, Sharon (Tom) Lebo of Vancouver, WA, Lisa (Dan) Walz of Omaha, NE, Bill (Veva) Friedman of Urbandale, Brian (Christine) Friedman of Omaha, NE, and Allen Friedman of Des Moines; her son-in-law, Bill (Carol) Neumayer; 9 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; her sister, Lois (Ervin "Whitey") Loneman of Carroll; her brother, Tom (Nancy) Meishied of Aurora, CO; her sisters-in-laws and brothers-in-laws: Arlene Dentlinger of Carroll, Mildred Schreck of Carroll, Sister Maria Friedman, FSPA of Lacrosse, WI, Wilma (Cletus) Irlbeck of Omaha, and Doris (Pat) Riordan of Rock Hill, SC; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her husband; her daughter, Amy Neumayer;

her grandson, Matthew Neumayer; her siblings: Ervin Meishied, Virgine (Vincent) Irlbeck, Maxine (Bill) Meshek, Verna Mae (Francis) Roth, Linda (Jim) Loneman, and Norman Meishied.
