“ My parents were best of friends with Ray and Margie. Spent time at their home and playing with Pat and Ronnie. Margie was my god mother. She made beautiful quilts and was a wonderful cook. Ray would made cars and other beautiful items out of wood. They were both so talented. They both will be so missed. Linda Kruse Gill

“ My sister Sandy and I spent a summer week at the Hackers many years while we were growing up. Very fond memories of playing on the big porch with Sherri and Donna, snapping beans from the garden with Aunt Margie, Uncle Ray's booming voice, Aunt Margie's smile and caramel rolls, and Uncle Ray's doll houses! Uncle Ray was my Godfather, which he reminded me regularly, and asked if I was going to church! Love, Michele.
