Richard John Keat was born to George and Colet (Eich) Keat on November 3rd, 1948, at Carroll, Iowa. Rick was the oldest of four children. He attended St. Joseph grade school, and graduated Kuemper High School in 1967. Rick served in the U.S. Army from 1968 to 1970, then attended the University of Northern Iowa.

On October 30, 1976, Rick married Mary Beth Juilfs at Faith Lutheran Church in Talmage, Nebraska. Rick and Mary made their home in Carroll, Iowa. They became parents to Brian in 1978 and Sarah in 1981.

Rick worked in construction, particularly flooring, for over 40 years. In retirement he was a groundskeeper at the Carroll Municipal Golf Course. He was an avid sports fan, supporting his local Carroll High Tigers, Iowa Hawkeyes, and New York Yankees. He loved golf, baseball, and was a master gardener. He was an active member of the Carroll American Legion, serving on the honor guard. Rick also loved spending time with his grandkids and watching them in their activities.

Rick is survived by his loving wife, Mary Beth; son Brian Keat and his wife Stephenie, son in law John Danner & Niki, his grandchildren Joseph Core, Emma Danner, Caleb Danner, Maxwell Keat, and Benjamin Keat, siblings Ron Keat, Judi and John Daniel and Jane Keat, in-laws Barb and David Beall, Merlin and Sarah Juilfs, Bodie and Doreen Juilfs.

Rick was preceded in death by his parents George and Colet Keat, daughter Sarah Danner, brother-in-law John Juilfs, sister-in-law Nancy Juilfs, and sister-in-law Deb Keat.
