On June 10, 1983, Bob was united in marriage to Rosalie Niehaus in Storm Lake. The couple made their home in Breda. Bob served the Breda Community in numerous ways including serving on the Breda E.M.S. and several artistic community projects. He enjoyed gardening, writing, music, art, and bird watching. Bob had been an active member of St. Bernard's Parish in Breda in the choir with his family, and as a lector, Eucharistic minister, and usher. His family and friends will remember his fondness for learning and music, and his willingness to be at as many of his kids' performances and concerts as he could. Bob always had an eye for detail and a kind smile for his community.
