Robert, "Bob," was born on December 13, 1955 and grew up on his parents' farm one and half miles northeast of Dedham. He graduated from Kuemper High School in 1974. Bob married the love of his life, Julie Jennings, on December 6, 1980 at St. Joseph's Church in Dedham.

Bob moved to his own farm eight miles northeast of Audubon in 1979, where he farmed until his death. He was a member of St. Patrick's Church in Audubon for many years and more recently, St. Joseph's Church in Dedham where he was a member of the church choir. He was an active member of the Knights of Columbus for many years. Bob loved spending time with family and friends and playing with his six grandchildren. He enjoyed golfing, watching ball games, and playing cards with family and also the guys on Wednesday afternoons.

Bob is survived by his wife Julie, and their three children: Erin (Kody) Hall of LaVista, NE, Christopher (Tracy) Hoffman of Dedham, and Jill (John) Sabroske of Aurora, Colorado. Also surviving Bob are his parents, Eugene and Carol Hoffman of Carroll and his sisters Alice Behrens of Audubon and Joan (Rick) Wittrock of Dedham. He was preceded in death by an infant grandson, Eugene Frank; his father and mother in law, Dr. G.G. and Grace Jennings.

“ I remember when we went to visit Julie and Bob in July 2013. We were visiting from Chile, and Patti and our son Cris were having some trouble communicating, but Bob welcomed all of us with a warm smile and really succeeded in crossing the language barrier with only his smile and friendly manner. After lunch, Bob took us out to the shed. Patti said that she was amazed by all the cats and the size of the machinery.

Bob then took Patti and Cris for a ride around the farm in the combine. Cris later told me it was like riding a roller coaster. They all had fun and laughed a lot. It was great experience for Patti and Cris, and I'm sure it's something that none of us will ever forget.

That's how we'll always remember Bob: open-hearted, fun, and always so considerate of others.
