Born on December 10, 1932 northeast of Breda, Iowa, Romaine was the son of Bernard and Magdalene (Snyder) Wittry. He grew up near Breda, and graduated from St. Bernard's High School in 1952. After his formal education

Romey began farming with his parents. He continued to farm until 2006, when he retired to Carroll.

Romey enjoyed collecting toy tractors, and model cars. He also enjoyed attending auctions, cats, and visiting with many people. Romey appreciated tinkering, and fixing anything that needed to be fixed. He was a lifelong parishioner of St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Breda.

Left to celebrate Romey's life is his siblings: Della Nieland of Manson, Dale (Catherine) Wittry of Carroll, John (Marceal) Wittry of Breda; his sisters-in-law: Joan Wittry of Breda, and Jane Wittry of Allen, TX; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Romey was preceded in death by his parents, Bernard and Magdalene Wittry; his brothers: Eugene Wittry, and Ken Wittry, and his brother-in-law: Pat Nieland.
