Ron was born on September 29, 1937, in Carroll, the son of William and Rita

(Schroeder) Sundrup of Arcadia. He was the eldest of nine children. He grew up in Arcadia and attended St. John Elementary and Arcadia High School. After graduation, he spent one summer in Chicago doing curb and gutter work. After returning to Arcadia, he went to work for Farmers Coop Elevator. On November 8, 1958, he was united in marriage to Helen Jane Berg at St. John Church in Arcadia. Six children were born to this union. In 1967, Ron purchased his father's trucking business, which he owned for over 50 years. Ron enjoyed driving trucks, hauling livestock, fuel, and feed ingredients; calling it his hobby. Despite health issues, he continued to drive until the age of 81. He loved his dogs, especially miniature dachshunds. He spent a lot of time in Branson and enjoyed polka music. He spent countless summers in Okoboji with his family on vacation. He was an avid Cubs fan and loved watching games with his grandsons. He loved to work with his hands and did many remodeling projects over the years. He and Helen were passionate about travel and enjoyed many cruises and trips overseas. Ron was a lifelong member of St. John Parish and served the parish in many capacities over the years.

Ron is survived by his wife Helen; his children Christie Sundrup (Bernie Hansman) of Carroll, Terri (Todd) White of Windsor Heights, Rusty Sundrup of Carroll, Shari Sundrup of Carroll, Dave Sundrup of Carroll, Rick (Erin) Sundrup of Arcadia; Grandchildren - Nate (Kate) White and their children Mia, Theo, Ben; Nicole (Seth) Hoveland; Cody (Cristina) White and their children Eli and Ethan; Chelsea (Antonio) Guitierrez and their child Helios; Kyle, Ryan, Luke and Hank Sundrup; his brother Dennis Sundrup; his sisters Karen Martens, Kathleen Sundrup, Judy Davis, Diane Sundrup, Patti (Steve) Sundermann, Barb Boldt; his in-laws Alice Sundrup, Norma Goecke, Marie Berg, Vern (Pat) Berg, Jim (Paulette) Berg; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.
