Born on August 10, 1926, in Dedham, Iowa, Rose was the daughter of Henry and Katherine (Kennebeck) Bekehermes. She spent her younger years in Dedham and attended St. Joseph's School. On October 20, 1953, Rose was united in marriage to Tony Riesberg at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Dedham. Rose and Tony lived in the Dedham and Mt. Carmel areas where she was a devoted homemaker and cleaned area homes. Rose enjoyed the outdoors; animals, gardening, and tending to her flowers. She liked to read and do needle work. Her family brought her great joy; she always loved hosting them for various family gatherings.

Rose is survived by her daughters: Sandy Riesberg of Des Moines, Jeanette Liddicoat of Phoenix, AZ, Judi (John) Gunderson of Woodward, and Carol (Ken) Stubbe of Glidden; her daughter-in-law, Kathy Venner of Arcadia; her son-in-law, Oscar Grabill of Des Moines; 20 grandchildren; 48 great-grandchildren; several great-great-grandchildren; her sister-in-law, Lillian Ferneding of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Rose was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Tony; her daughter, Mary Grabill; her sons: Larry, Dan, and Mark Riesberg; her sisters, Lucille Soppe and Viola Soppe; and her brother Sylvester Bekehermes.
