Born on July 12, 1922 at Carroll, Iowa, Rose was the daughter of Otto and Rose (Hoffman) Kasperbauer. She grew up in Carroll and attended Sts. Peter and Paul School. On April 21, 1942 she married Alfred Sondgeroth at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Carroll. Following their marriage, the couple made their home in Carroll. In 1960 Rose & Al purchased the El Capitan Motel and moved to Creston. In 1970 when they moved back to Carroll they owned and operated the Blue Bird Grocery Store.

Rose was very active until the day of her illness and was working at the Carroll Public Library, a job she thoroughly enjoyed. This January she received the Everyday Hero Award. Throughout her lifetime she cleaned homes, worked for General Electric Plant for 13 years, Carroll Area Daycare Center, Daily Times Herald, Holy Spirit Elementary and Library where she worked with the Summer Reading Program. Most recently Rose was active with the Carroll County Foster Grandparent's Program. Rose enjoyed playing cards but most of all enjoyed the time spent with her family. She was a member of Holy Spirit Parish, Carroll Catholic Daughters of Americas, and the Foster Grandparent's Program of Carroll County.

Survivors include two daughters: Dorothy (Ron) Dunphy of Creston, and Alice (Bill) Brown of Carroll; one grandson, Todd (Susan) Dunphy of Creston; granddaughter-in-law, Dana Dunphy of Anthem, AZ; her great-grandchildren: Colton Dunphy, Austin Dunphy, Brian Dunphy, Henry Dunphy, and Amy Dunphy; one sister, Bette Bluml of Carroll; her sisters-in-law: Inez Kasperbauer of Carroll, Irma (Art) Reicks of Carroll, and Pat Sondgeroth of Carroll; her brothers-in-law: Jerry Schulte of Marshalltown and Jerry Steenson of Omaha; as well as many nieces, nephews, and many friends.

Rose was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Alfred in July of 1973; infant daughter, Janice Rose; her grandson, Tom Dunphy; two brothers: Jack and Andy Kasperbauer; three sisters: Lucille Lasher, Loretta Venteicher, and Annie Kasperbauer; her sister-in-law, Jean Kasperbauer; and brothers-in-law: Otto Bluml, Duane Lasher, and Clarence Venteicher.

“ Dorothy and Alice you are in my prayers.
Your mom was a wonderful woman. She use to come and have lunch with us when ever we were in Carroll and catch up. We will miss her around Irma's table.
