Roxie was born on October 3, 1952 to John and Virginia (Ricke) Carlin of Breda. She attended St. Bernard's School in Breda and graduated high school in 1970. She then attended St. Joseph School of Nursing in Omaha, Nebraska, graduating in 1973.

On Memorial Day 1968, she was working as a lifeguard at the Breda Swimming Pool, when she met who would become her husband, Edward (Ed) Rohner. Ed and Roxie were joined in marriage on February 13, 1971 at St Bernard's Catholic Church in Breda. This union blessed Ed and Roxie with their three children: Tracie, Heather, and Edward II (Tony).

As a child, Roxie enjoyed going to "Market" in Omaha to get merchandise for Grandpa Ricke's store in Breda. She had a love of travel that started early with annual trips to Colorado to visit her grandparents.

Throughout her upbringing she learned to have great faith in God Almighty. She was introduced to the service of God and Country by her Mother. She attended American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State and that service continued as a lifelong member of the Breda American Legion Auxiliary Post 607.

Roxie's professional life was spent primarily in emergency nursing. She spent several years in EMS alongside her husband. She also spent many years working in Des Moines and spent the last few years of her career as a traveling emergency room nurse.

Roxie found great joy in flower gardening, reading, singing, and attending musical performances. She loved passing on traditions. She was proud of her German Irish heritage which showed through her cooking. However, her greatest joys were found in her 9 grandchildren, 3 'bonus' granddaughters, 2 great grandchildren and was eagerly awaiting the third in May. Last but not least, she loved her sweets- whether it was giving her grandchildren ice cream for breakfast, buying every slice of pie at the Lake View Water Carnival or savoring pies from Kathy's in Lake View. Every treat was as sweet as her memories to us!

Above all, her greatest strengths were her love of family and ability to find the beauty in things everywhere she went.

Left to cherish the memory of Roxie are her husband of nearly 51 years, Edward Rohner; her daughters Tracie ( Tom) Moss and Heather ( Brian Fisher) Sander, and her son Edward II [Tony] ( Michelle) Rohner, grandchildren: Lindsey (Sydney) Slater, Michelle ( Josh) Hoffman, Zachary (Emily) Moss, Samantha (Emmanuel Okirie) Moss, Jacob Sander, Madilynn Fisher, Gracie Fisher, Cora Fisher Andrea Sander, Kiana Rohner, Alexis Rohner, Emmalynn Rohner,; great grandchildren: Sydney Slater Junior, Chloe Hoffman; Mother: Virginia Carlin; Brother: Rick (Ruth Fogler) Carlin; and nephew, Chris Fogler and niece, Kate Fogler.

Roxie was reunited in Heaven with her beloved father, John Carlin; father-in-law and mother-in-law : Joseph II and Wenonah Rohner.

Ed and the family sorry to here about your loss. No words can say how shocked i was when i heard the new. Roxie was like a 2nd mother just like Ed was a father to me when i was at there house. I was the kid that thought there house was going to fall down in the river when i stayed with Tony. Tony I remember a lot of good times with you and then not so many good ones when you crashed your mother car in to a pole yes this was not your fault due to ice. Thank god you was not hurt but boy did you and I get the lecture from your dad and hell i was not even in the car with you. I was just standing there asking you if you was ok. Thanks for the memories and the good time and Roxie thank for watching out and telling my parents what i did right or wrong! Going to miss you.

“Roxie was my sister-in-law. I couldn't ask for a better sister-in-law. We had so many wonderful talks almost every week on the phone. I miss her so deeply. We always enjoyed going out for lunch and talking about everything. Our family has lost an incredible woman. I love ❤️ you dearly Roxie. I'll see you in heaven some day. Please go out for lunch with John and Wenonah. Order the best dessert on the menu.
