Born on December 3, 1981 at Carroll, Iowa, Sarah Elizabeth was the daughter of Rick and Mary (Juilfs) Keat. She grew up as part of the Kevin Avenue gang and attended Fairview Elementary and Carroll Middle School. Sarah graduated as valedictorian of the Class of 2000 from Carroll High School. Pursuing her nursing degree, she attended the University of Iowa and became an avid Hawkeye fan. In 2004, Sarah received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, graduating with honors. In her first job she was employed as an obstetrics nurse at Broadlawns Hospital in Des Moines. She later became one of the OB girls at the Birth Place at St. Anthony Hospital in Carroll.

On October 20, 2007, Sarah married John Danner at St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church in Carroll. She became a mother to Emma in 2008 and Caleb in 2010. The Danner family made their home at Swan Lake State Park in Carroll where John is a park ranger.

Sarah loved being a mother, wife and nurse. She was a friend to many and a loving daughter and sister. She enjoyed Hawkeye football, being part of the Swan Lake family, helping deliver babies, and taking care of new mothers. Sarah was a member of St. John Evangelical Lutheran Church in Carroll.

Sarah is survived by her husband John Danner and her children, Emma and Caleb of Carroll; her parents: Rick and Mary Keat of Carroll; her brother, Brian Keat and his wife Stephenie of Ames; her parents-in-law: Bill and Barb Danner of Carroll; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Michelle Shook of Halbur, Joe (Kelly) Danner of Glidden, Christina (Joddey) Hicks of Ames, Chuck (Elisabeth) Danner of Carroll, Becky (Kyle) Clark of Dickens, Elizabeth (Joe) Lawler of Carroll, and Jacob Danner of Carroll; as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Sarah was preceded in death by her grandparents: Welton and Marlyse Juilfs and George and Colet Keat; and her aunt, Nancy Juilfs.
