Tim worked primarily as a welder over his career and worked for Parker Manufacturing, New Way Trucks and John Deere.

His memory will be cherished by all who shared a meal with him, went to a Christian concert, or athletic event. Tim was a very sociable person, and he was at his happiest when he was around his family, loved ones and friends.

“ I was blessed to be able to provide home health services for Tim when he was still at home. And saw him a few times after that. I truly enjoyed him. He was given a lot to deal with these past several years, but seemed to accept them and still rejoice in the Lord. I feel my life is better with knowing him. My sympathies to his family. Go Cardinals!
