“ I remember growing up with Tim. He was my older cousin. He lived with our grandma olive and his mom, aunt pick (Virginia.) He was a fun kid who loved to play with friends in the field across the street. He tolerated me tagging along being a general pain. Tim was good hearted, modest and fun. We got into alot of trouble together. But you were my buddy, you were loved and are missed. Ladona

“ I was very sorry to learn of Tim's passing. The last time we talked was some time back but I feel it was a very productive phone visit as he was coming off of a very low period in his life and needed reassurance. I wish he would have stayed in touch. You are thought of and were loved very much. Aunt Bev

“ This is what I remember about Tim: when I would go into Schenkelbergs, he would always call me by my name and give me a hard time (in a good way). I liked Tim and he will be missed.

“ I am saddened by the news of my cousin's death. I have so many memories of him! We lost touch for the past 5 years but Tim was never forgotten. We grew up together and played many pranks on each other (both good and bad)! You will be missed "Bird" and I hope you know how much I love you!!

“ Schenkelberg Implement has lost a significant piece to their puzzle. Tim was full of knowledge and orneriness. It won't be the same without him. If he was missing at times, you just had to go to the back room and find him on the phone with his best friend, his wife. Lisa, we are all holding you close in our thoughts and prayers.... <3

Our deepest sympathies to you and his children and step children. Timmy came into our lives in the 80's, he got his car stuck on the mud road by our trailer home, and knocked on our door for help. My husband Mike pulled him out and for doing that he told Timmy to come to our shop the next day and wash his bronco (that pulled him out) After that was his first mechanic like job at my husband's shop. He also helped us in being part of the pit crew for our race car. He was a good kid, worked hard and was very committed to everything in front of him. He will be missed so much by many! So very sorry for your loss, Lisa.
