Anthony "Tony" Riesberg was born on January 31, 1930 at Templeton, Iowa the son of Anton and Mary (Sondgeroth) Riesberg. He spent his younger years in the Templeton area and attended Sacred Heart Schools, later helping his family with their farm operation.

Tony served in the United States Army from 1951-1953 and following his honorable discharge returned to the Carroll area. On October 20, 1953 he married Rose Bekehermes at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dedham. The couple lived near Dedham for a brief time while Tony worked as a farm hand. Tony and Rose then moved to an acreage near Mt. Carmel where he worked for Wiedemeier Farms and also was employed at Carroll Manufacturing until his retirement.

In his spare time Tony enjoyed reading, watching television, playing cards, and dancing in his younger years. Tony was a member of Holy Spirit Parish in Carroll.

Survivors include his wife Rose of Carroll; his daughters: Sandy Riesberg of Des Moines, Jeanette Liddicoat of Phoenix, AZ, Mary Grabill and her husband Oscar of Des Moines, Judi Gunderson and her husband John of Woodward, and Carol Stubbe and her husband Ken of Glidden; his daughter-in-law, Kathy Venner of Arcadia; 19 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; 5 great-great-grandchildren; his sisters: Lillian Ferneding of Carroll and Irma Grote of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Tony was preceded in death by his parents; his sons: Larry, Dan, and Mark Riesberg; his sisters: Helen Schweers, and Elizabeth Willenborg; and his brothers: Clarence, Walter, Andrew, Lester, Hilbert, and Fr. Leo Riesberg.

“ What I remember most is the warmth that reached out to me every time Tony and Rose shared their home and family with me. Thank you, Rose and Tony, for gifting my life in so many ways, especially for your daughter, Sandy, my friend. My heart and prayers are with all of you, Rose, Sandy, Judi, Carol, Mary and your families.
