Born on August 1, 1942 at Carroll, Iowa, Velma was the daughter of Andrew and Laura (Riesberg) Hoffman. She grew up in Roselle and attended Holy Angels School through the 8th grade. Velma lived with her parents nearly her entire lifetime and spent the past 5 years as a resident of the Carroll Health Center. Velma was devoted to her family and her faith and took great interest into her family's history. She enjoyed playing bingo, gardening, watching television, Shirley Temple's, but most of all, her family and the residents of the Carroll Health Center. She was a member of St. Lawrence Parish in Carroll. Survivors include one brother, Edward Hoffman and his wife Lorraine of Glidden; five sisters: Louetta Langel and her husband LaVern of Templeton, Adella Vogl and her husband John of Adair, Alvera Rosonke and her husband Virgil of Manning, Laura Ann Danner and her husband Dennis of Carroll, and Rose Marie Sturm of Altoona; as well as many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; and a niece, Patricia Danner.
