“ My Deepest Sympathy. It's so hard to lose someone you love in death. Friends and family really help, but for those times when they are not available, drawing close to God really helps. God invites us to lean on him in troubled times. For God says: "Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness." Isn't it comforting to know that God will hold on to your right hand when you are sad or need help. I hope these words comfort you and strengthen you as you go through this difficult time.

“ Vickie and I carpoled to and from Community Chorus practices for many years. Skip Raridon, another chorus member, nicknamed us "The Breda Bus". Our conversations along those miles included talk of our families, planting or harvest progress, our jobs, sewing projects, trips we'd taken and the music we shared. We'd arrive at rehearsal, sing with our sections, and, as our director hoped, I think we usually worked hard and most always had fun. I surely miss my chorus companion and share sympathies with her family and friends. Shelley Hundling

Scott, thank you for posting these pictures of your Mom and Dad. They are just like I want to remember them, smiling, full of life and together. Just a year ago we were grieving the passing of Danny and now Vickie has left us to be with him. Our class sweethearts are gone. They exemplified the Class of '69 and now, we will all miss them forever. With sympathy and prayers, Mary Lou Hart
