Viola Huegerich was born on October 31, 1916 at Carroll, Iowa, the daughter of Frank and Mary (Bernholtz) Huegerich. She spent her younger years in Mt. Carmel, Iowa, and would graduate from Our Lady of Mt. Carmel High School. Following her formal education Viola was a housekeeper for her grandfather.

Viola then moved to California, upon arriving in California; Viola worked at an Ammunitions Factory during World War II. Following the conclusion of the War, Viola remained in California, where she became a full-time nanny for a family. Viola was treated more than just the nanny by this family, and she remained close with this family, even after her retirement. Following her retirement, she returned to the Carroll community. She enjoyed playing cards, cooking, and visiting with her friends and family. She was a member of Holy Spirit Church in Carroll.

Survivors include many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; siblings: Lucille Rust, Thelma Wiederin, Marian Vicarius, LuJean Schaefer, Darlene Taylor, Henry Huegerich, Edwin Huegerich, LeRoy Huegerich, Earl Huegerich, and four siblings in infancy; as well as other family, and friends.

*She spent many years being cared for at the Health Center. The staff has always remarked what a joy it was it was to care for. her. She was very appreciative of everything that was done for her. She never complained. She thought of it as her home and was easy to get along with. She had many roommates and got along very well with them
She will be missed..*
